

NEXT STEPS

Live Differently

No one stumbles into discipleship or accidentally begins to follow Jesus better. God's Spirit directs us in the footsteps of Jesus every single day, and every step is a step of grace. In this series we'll look at three of our Next Steps that God wants us to keep taking.

These questions are designed to extend the impact of the weekend message. Use them to go deeper in your personal study time, with your family and/or with a group.

1 Here's an icebreaker to start: whether for good reasons or bad ones, who is a coach or teacher you will always remember? What makes them so memorable?

2 Read Titus 2:11 and Titus 3:3-7. These passages reminds us we are saved by grace. If you were going to explain God's grace to someone totally unfamiliar with Christianity, what would you say?

3 Read Titus 2:12. This passage says that we're not just saved by grace, but also we are trained by grace. How does grace train us? What is God telling you to say No or Yes to, specifically? In our day to day lives, how do we keep this from just being a list of Do's and Don'ts?

4 Read Titus 2:13. This passage points to a promise in the future. Why does Jesus promising to come back matter for our lives today?

5 Read Titus 2:14. We're back to grace again. In summary: Jesus has redeemed your past and promised your future. Trust Him to change your present. Where is it hardest for you to want what God wants? Finish by praying for each other, that God's Spirit would give you the "want to" for living differently.
